

Caboodlestopper Press release

If you're coming to the fair, get ready to be swept up in a whirlwind of fun with The Caboodlestoppers, the ultimate in family entertainment!

This highly talented family of six performs at fairs all across America and Canada. In only four years time, they have risen to become one of the most talked about shows in the fair industry.

So what exactly do the Caboodlestoppers do? "Well," explains Mammy, "Our shows are a mix of a Broadway musical, stand up comedy, and Leave it to Beaver, with a dash of Branson thrown in. We wanted to make shows that the entire family can enjoy. With audience participations where as many as 20 can come up and star in the show, music from almost every decade, and comedy that gets the whole family rolling in the aisles, it's a show with something for everyone."

"When we created the shows, our main emphasis was to keep it clean. There seems to be a lack of clean family humor nowadays and we wanted to do something about it. We want families to be able to sit down and enjoy the show without having to worry about what their kids might see or hear."

When asked what their motivation is, without hesitation Mammy replied, "The fans, We're out here to make the audience feel like part of the family." With monthly newsletters keeping their fans up to date with funny stories, free pictures of the audience participations, and meet and greets before and after every single show, it's easy to see that their fans consider them more than just entertainers, they consider them friends.

Springboarding off their success in the fair industry, The Caboodlestoppers have released their first movie. "A Caboodlestopper Christmas" They wanted families to be able to take the fun of the fair home with them and enjoy it all year long.

With over sixteen different oddball characters, high energy singing and dancing, and nonstop laughs from beginning to end, The Caboodlestoppers are a must see at this year's fair.
